Emblem Sessions at Kalamazoo

Call for Papers
53rd International Congress on Medieval Studies
May 10-13, 2018

The Society for Emblem Studies has held sponsored sessions for over 35 years at the International Congress on Medieval Studies at the Medieval Institute at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan, and will apply again to hold several sponsored sessions on emblem studies and visual culture.

The Congress is an annual gathering of over 3,000 scholars interested in Medieval Studies. It features over 600 sessions of papers, panel discussions, roundtables, workshops, and performances. There are also some 90 business meetings and receptions sponsored by learned societies, associations, and institutions and a book exhibit by nearly 70 publishers and used book dealers. A full conference program is available on the congress website: http://wmich.edu/medievalcongress

Suggested Topics:

Please send paper proposals to the session organizer by September 28. Applications are open to all with an academic interest in emblem studies. We encourage advanced graduate students, dissertators, post-docs, and independent scholars to apply and participate.

Deadline for proposals: September 28, 2017
